PIANO.

KEY D.

The piano introduction is in D major, 2/4 time, marked 'ff' (fortissimo). It consists of four measures. The first measure has a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The second and third measures have a bass clef and a key signature of one sharp. The fourth measure has a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The melody is played in the right hand, and the bass line is in the left hand.

The first system of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and a piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The key signature is D major (one sharp). The tempo is marked 'p' (piano). The lyrics are: "John Bull has been forced in to bat - tle, A war that was none of his seek - ing, But in war time the scout would be use - ful, His ser - vices we should find han - dy, For

The second system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "should we be a nation of headhewers at the night, If we let a foreign power do the thing that wasn't right, 'Na - carrying despatches his size a boat would be, And much easier he'd get through the lines of our ruthless one, my, By

The third system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "go - leon 'I'll be," said the Kal - ser, 'I'll rule the land and rule the ocean too," He had scout - ing help prove himself cle - ver, Dis - cover - ing the strength of our foe, Make a

The fourth system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "no consid - er - a - tion For the English as a nation, With her lads in khaki and in na - vy blue, proper little soldier, Like his brother who is older, In the fir - ing line he'd have the pluck to go, roll - en - tan - do,
