

The Song of the Scouts

Words and Music by

HERBERT CARROLL

Moderato.

A musical score for 'The Song of the Scouts' featuring four staves of music. The first staff uses a treble clef, the second a bass clef, the third an alto clef, and the fourth a bass clef. The key signature is one flat. The tempo is marked 'Moderato.' The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing between the staves. The lyrics are:

O.... ver the world from East to West, We try to play the game Boys from the far-thest North and South. Proud of a glor-ious name, We're re-ady to lend a help-ing hand where e-ver we may be Smi-ling Scouts up

Chorus. Maestoso

Musical score for the Chorus section of 'Scouts at Sea'. The score consists of four staves, each with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature. The vocal parts are in soprano, alto, tenor, and bass. The piano accompaniment is in the bass and treble staves below. The lyrics are as follows:

Ramblerando
... bal.
long the trail we go. Cubs and Wolves & leaders too Shout ad lib "Cheer-i-o" Camping out is just the thing it makes you fit and strong to help your country & yourself when things go wrong. things go wrong Out in the bush where song-birds trill Scout-ing a-cross the plain Gee! don't we have some bon-zer fun, whe-ther its fine or rain There's all sorts of joy but none like this, We'll let this odd world know Throw out your chest! Let's hear you sing, come on. Boys! Let it go!! (To Chorus) f ped.

Now by the camp'fires ruddy gleam
After a happy day,
We swap our yarns and dream our dreams
Whiling the hours away,
Then off to bed and soon "lights out,"
And well-earned sweet repose;
Thanks be to God for all the joys,
The life of a Boy Scout knows.
