

THE BOY SCOUT

NEW STIRRING SCOUT SONG FOR OUR B.P. BOYS

A NEW ZEALAND BOY SCOUT

Price 2/- Net

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

Words and Music by

PERCY FLYNN.

PUBLISHED BY FRENCH & FLYNN

McLeod & Studd, Ltd., Lithographers, New Plymouth, N.Z.

Printed
and Bound by McLeod & Studd

music
Box
Fly
Bag 1916

ALEXANDER TURNBULL
LIBRARY
WELLINGTON NEW ZEALAND

THE BOY SCOUT.

All Rights
Strictly Reserved.

Words and Music by PERCY FLYNN.

Marcia

VOICE

PIANO

1st. Hel - lo! my boys, it's ma - ny a day since I have
2nd. I've learned a lot of things, ve - ry use - ful things, since seen you to speak to, I'm kept I joined the Scouts, boys, It would busy just now, Since I donned the u - ni - form,

o - pen your eyes What a little chap can do, rit We were pals when I'd nothing else to do, 'cept hang around the street, like I'm just as fond of games as Jim and you, But games can-not com - pare with a tempo

Jim and you, But a diff - rent lad of me they've made, Since I things we do, For it's each lad's duty with - in this land To do rit CHORUS.

joined the ranks of the Scouts' Brigade. Then hur - rah! for the life of a some small thing for our Em - pire grand.

Scout, boys, The weak and the helpless de - fend, Just find sat - is - fac - tion in playing the game, You'll prove it's the best in the end; Then hur - rah! for the life of a Scout, boys, For honour's a beau-ti - ful thing, And a Scout on his honour is true to his trust, And loyal to Country and King. Then hur- King.

poco rall

rit

a tempo

D.C. to 8

rit

a tempo

3rd VERSE.

I've lately read of many brave deeds
 That have been done by our soldiers;
 They are fighting for us
 And the flag we love so well;
 We are too young to answer Empire's call,
 And fight upon the field where heroes fall;
 But here at home perhaps we may Help our Empire's cause in some other way.

CHORUS.

Then hurrah! for the life of a Scout, boys,
 The weak and the helpless defend,
 Just find satisfaction in playing the game,
 You'll prove it's the best in the end;
 Then hurrah! for the life of a Scout, boys,
 For honour's a beautiful thing,
 And a Scout on his honour is true to his trust,
 And loyal to Country and King.