

B.-P.'S OUTLOOK

Some selections from the his contributions to "The Scouter" from 1909 - 1941

PREFACE

1909-1912

Object of Camping

Patrol Leaders

Efficiency Badges

Our Aim

Training Scouts

Camps

Patrol Leaders

Playing the Game

Winter Training Programmes

Teacup Storms and How to Avoid Them

First-aid

The Value of Camp Life

In Camp

Discipline

Winter Training of Scouts

International Brotherhood

Education

Religion

The Other Fellow's Point of View

1913-1915

The Need for a Refresher

Overseas Scouts

On Camping

A Picture of Bad Scouting

Uniform for Scout Officials

Camping
Education -- Debtor and Creditor
The Scout's Necktie
Be Prepared : Winter Coming
Patrol Reports
The Patrol Spirit
Where Drill Fails
The Origin of Scouting for Boys
First-class Scout
Anti-War, but not, therefore, Anti-Military
Don't Patrols
Sea Chanties
Calm and Cheery
The Outbreak of War
The War
War
The Importance of the Patrol Leader

1916-1919

Self-education
Ridiculous Troops
Retention of the Elder Scout
Shorts
The Camping Season
The Scout's Staff
Decentralisation
The Religion of the Backwoods
The Responsibilities of Citizenship

Reconstruction

What Scouting can do towards it

Standard Cloth

No need of it for Scoutmasters

The Tsar and the Scouts

The Future

Physical Jerks

Oxygen for Ox's strength

Nature Study

Camping

Camping Again

1920-1924

Every Scoutmaster his own Handbook

Automatic Internationality

What is Scouting ?

Woodcraft is not Wampum

Woodcraft Indians

The Hang of the Thing

Standardisation of Badges

Listen

The Game of Scouting

Shaving-paper Notes

Development of the Patrol System

Indoors

Service

Village Troops

Fundamental Ethics

Hang the Right People

Brotherhood

1926-1930

Duty to the King

Campers

Personal

Going Up

Drawing

Sunday in Camp

A Scout is Thrifty

Some Ideas on Scouts' Owns

Play-acting

Happifying

"I'm Out of Patience with You"

A Jam-Roll Holiday

Music in a Beauty Parlour

1930-1936

Scouting is a Game, not a Science

Health

International Scouting

Bad Camping

A New Honour for the Movement

Put Yourself in His Place

St. George's Day

Camping and Hiking

Jollifying Scouting

Jamborees

Books

Adventure
Our Twenty-fifth Anniversary
Retrospect
Prospect
At a Conference
Rip Van Winkle
Synthetic Scouting
First Principles
Leadership

1937-1941

Faith, Hope, and Love
A Mountain Dream
Hippos and Gilwell
Four Score and Four
Sowing the Seed
A Lesson in Being Prepared
Pruning Roses
"The Old Order Changeth, Yielding Place to New."